Sanjay Vidyarthi Managing Director & CEO

Sanjay Vidyarthi is Founder, Investor, and Managing Director & CEO of Agritech Enablers.

In his career spanning 33 years, Sanjay has worked in IT (4 years), Telecommunications (14), Services (13) and Social (2+) sectors across the globe in India, Asia/Pacific, Europe and the US in multi-function roles, last 17 years as Managing Director/CXO in India of two NASDAQ listed companies, an NYSE listed company, top PE owned companies, and a privately owned organization.

Sanjay quit the corporate world in 2018 at the age of 53 and founded a voluntary self-funded pro bono initiative, Bharat to India Connect (b2ic.org), to work in the villages for building a holistic rural development model. He works extensively with farmers, village women, youth, and children of the 9 villages adopted by B2Ic in Alwar District of Rajasthan supporting four major initiatives: Enable development of Farmer Producer Company; Enable technology adoption by farmers; Enable development of village women and youth entrepreneurs; Support development of Government Primary Schools.

Previously, Sanjay has worked in some of the world's largest and global leaders (AT&T, Lucent (and at Bell Labs), Jabil); in midsize niche dominant global market leaders (Tekelec, Somera/Telmar/iQor, Wipro); and in cutting-edge start-up funded by top VCs (Santera Systems).

In his last corporate assignment as Managing Director – India at iQor (previously Jabil, previously Telmar) for over a decade, he helped build India's largest and a world-class Aftermarket Services company, in complete start-up mode and completely indigenously - from 2 people in 2008 to 2500+ people in 100+ cities in 23 states in 2018, with $ 70 M revenue run-rate serving top global and Indian brands. iQor India was awarded Global Best-in-Class Hardware Services Company by QuEST Forum, world's leading ICT standardization organization. iQor India was also a recipient of coveted BML Munjal Award for Business Excellence.

Sanjay is a Bell Labs President's Awards Winner.

Sanjay earned his B.Tech. in Mechanical Engineering with Honours from National Institute of Technology, Calicut in 1987.
